

AFAC Spring Garden Kickoff 2017

Description

Growing food for our neighbors in need

m – 1 pm Arlington Central Library (Auditorium) 1015 N. Quincy Street,

Presentation: “The Central Library gardens and their Role in Building Community” Margaret Brown, Manager, Arlington Central Library (& garden partners)

- Learn about AFAC’s Plot Against Hunger gardens and how to establish your own
- Attend special presentations by local experts on raised bed gardening; water conservation using drip irrigation, rain barrels and ollas; succession planting to raise crop yields in small gardens
- Learn about best practices in growing vegetables in our region
- Special exhibits on mushroom growing, bee-keeping, container & window gardening, Northern Virginia Extension Service, 4-H in the schools, Master Gardeners and others ? Free vegetable and herb seeds for AFAC gardeners
- BONUS: Take home coffee grounds to enrich your compost AND rich compost from AFAC’s compost bins in Walter Reed Garden Light refreshments will be available

RSVP Required. Please go to https://afac.org/afac-events/afac-spring-garden-kick-off/ to RSVP!

Plot Against Hunger presents the 4th Annual Spring Garden Kick-off featuring speakers, knowledgeable practitioners, free seeds, and demonstrations of garden techniques. The kick-off is a great way to learn about how to start a garden for AFAC, how to donate produce to AFAC, and hear from community garden coordinators and others about lessons learned. For information, contact Puwen at plotagainsthunger@afac.org

Category

1. Events
2. Plot Against Hunger

Date Created
February 16, 2017
Author
robinb